to say, that personal experience and statements of others warrant us in saying that

ARRIVALS at the Tucson Restaurant ending with April 30: L. M. Jacobs, San Francisco; A. Smith, Santa Rita; S. Wise, Florence; Sanford Bros., Sanford Ranch; Smith Turner, J. W. Gaines, and H. McGarrick, Florence; Wm. Ohnesorgen, San Pedro; A. Daguirre, Yuma; John Burt, Cle-egee.

G. H. HOWARD returned on Tuesday from his trip to Sonora. Geo. Baker went out on Wednesday's stage. H. B. Smith left for the Smith mining district on Wednesday. D. A. and F. Sanford arrived on Saturday last from their ranch at upper Chienega. S. B. Wise came up from Montezuma on Sunday and returned on Wednesday. Wm. Ohnesorgen came in from San Pedro this week to qualify as postmaster at that place. S. R. Turner came up from Florence on Sunday. Gen.
J. E. McCaffry, United States District Attorney, left on Monday to attend the district court at Prescott.

ON Tuesday morning Geo. W. Stevens (Patsy), who is at work for Maish & Driscoll at their ranch, about two miles above Canana, went out back of the house to look for a milch cow, and when out about one hundred and fifty yards, a Mexican jumped up from behind some brush and commenced firing at him with a pistol, the second shot making an ugly wound in the left arm above the elbow. Stevens was unarmed and retreated to the house.
He says the Mexican was a stranger and he cannot account for the attack except that the man intended to kill him and then plunder the ranch. Patsy says he shall go prepared for these road gentry in future. Dr. Handy has dressed the wound and as no bones are broken no danger is anticipated.

P. LAZARUS' large train arrived on Monday of this week from Yuma, loaded with freight for himself, Zeckendorf Bros. and J. N. Fish & Co. Mr. Lazarus' train made his trip from Yuma to Tucson in just sixteen days, and it is claimed that this is the quickest train trip ever made on that road. We notice this with pleasure as improvement in transportation is one of the surest signs of business improvement in any locality. Salazar's train arrived on Wednesday with freight for L. M. Jacobs & Co. Juan Lusero's train reached here on Wednesday from Las Cruces, N. M., with freight for S. H. Drachman. Garner's wagons and also Burrola's came in on Monday loaded with lumber from the Santa Rita saw-mill. A. Daguerre's train arrived with merchandise for Lord & Williams on Monday. Wm. Morgan's train loaded with lumber arrived yesterday.

MR. JAMES H. TOOLE, like many a good man before him, while away his hours of leisure between looking after the interests of his estate and experimenting in the exact sciences. His latest experiment has enabled him to bring out a hen which he claims will lay over any other hen in this town. A bold stand to take and one demanding some nerve to maintain, but Mr. Toole has got the documents to back him. The documents are a number of eggs, which at the time of our examination, the gentlemen laid on the table before us and allowed us to select one and that not the largest, at random; it was found to measure in circumference 7 1/2 inches lengthwise, and 5 1/2 inches side-wise. This egg weighed 1/4 of a pound and the hen lays one egg at her seasons each day as large and sometimes larger than this. The proprietor of this chicken boldly challenges competition.

ON the evening of the 27th the officers of the Eighth Infantry stationed at Camp Lowell, gave a stirrup-cup entertainment to the departing officers of the Fifth Cavalry at the same post. This entertainment consisted of a very pleasant ball and supper given at the quarters of the post sutler.
The building was tastefully decorated and from the main entrance shown down upon the entering guest the names, in illuminated letters, of Col. W. B. Royall, and Capt. Emil Adam, and Lieut. W. C.
Forbush and C. H. Rockwell. Invitations had been issued to the various ladies and gentlemen of Tucson and these, added to the society of the camp, made a "goodly company." All went merry as a marriage bell. The music, by the Fifth Cavalry band, couldn't help but be good, the dances were happily arranged, the ladies were good natured, the men were more bearable than usual, (several of them brought out new neck-ties, but space will not permit a description of these), and in fact all who were present, felt it was good for them to be there. The supper and wines were excellent, and altogether when the party broke up, "just before the dawning," the officers who gave and the officers who received this compliment, had a large addition made to the pleasant memories of their lives. In this connection and on the eve of their departure, we will take occasion to say that not only those who were present at this entertainment, but our citizens as a body say farewell to the officers and men of the Fifth Cavalry with regret and with a deep sense of gratitude. They have acted well their part as soldiers and laid this Territory under a lasting debt of thanks deserved. The brilliant reputation they have won in the field has been supplemented by social attributes, and they leave behind them many friends.

Local Improvements.

At no period since 1867 has there been as much activity in the erection of new buildings and repairs and improvements to old ones, as the present. In our travels around town we notice that J. S. Mans-feld has recently completed an addition to his residence, corner Camp street and Stone Ave. W. W. Williams is making a fine arched portal to his residence on Ochoa street above Stone Ave. J. H. C.
Waltemath is erecting a new building in front of his present residence on Jackson street above Convent. A. Wilkins has nearly completed his large new residence on McCormick street above Convent. W.
O. Sullivan is adding to his old residence corner of Stone Ave. and McCormick street, and is preparing to erect a new building at the corner of Camp street and Military plaza. R. M. Robertson is building a fine residence at the extreme south end of Stone Avenue. J. P. Fuller is making extensive improvements on the block bounded by Stone Ave. and McCormick and Cushing streets, and Military plaza. Pedro Baruel is erecting a new residence on Jackson street above Meyers street. A. Barnett is building a residence on Cushing street, below Stone Ave.
Messrs. C. A. Paige, Pedro Aguirre and Wm. Eustiss are continuing to make fine improvements to their respective properties on Convent street. Mrs. Fecunda Gonzales is adding a new building to her residence on corner of Convent and Cushing streets. Maish & Driscoll's new brick hotel on Meyers street is up the first story and begins to show its fine proportions. Abadie & Co.'s large new block of houses nearly opposite the new hotel is being rapidly completed. The building of E. N. Fish & Co., on Main street erected for a drug store, will be ready for occupancy in a few days. Hon. H. S.
Stevens is making extensive improvements to the property adjoining his residence on Main st., recently belonging to the Duffield estate. Samuel Hughes Jr. is at work on his smelting furnace on corner of Main and Alameda streets. Mr.
Wellsch is changing the front of his store and when completed it will be one of the finest store-rooms in town. J. B. Allen, who has the contract for the erection of Mr. Toole's large new store on corner of Meyers and Congress streets, has the foundations all laid and this building when completed will add much to the beauty and business of that part of town.
R. N. Leatherwood is making extensive and fine improvements to his hay corral and feed stable and will soon be prepared to accommodate the rapidly increasing travel. James Blade recently purchased the property of Mr. Francisco Ruelas on Mesilla street, and intends to improve it.
In the extreme southern part of town as well as in the northern, several buildings are in course of erection or soon will be.

To the foregoing list should be added the school house. From present appearances Tucson is on the road to prosperity and we can reasonably anticipate that the present demand for buildings and rooms will increase, as the many mines in our vicinity now being worked are further developed.

DON'T you remember those terrific days last Summer when, if your feelings were to be relied upon at all, the thermometer was at least 100, and how you sighed for an ice cold drink? Well, what do you think of this item just handed us: Next door to and just south of Archibald's store on main street, there will be opened on the first of May and continue open during the Summer, a Marble Soda Fountain, supplied with all kinds of syrups, Raspberry, Lemon, Ginger, Vanilla, Sarsaparilla, Gooseberry, etc., etc. The soda will be kept ice cold and the saloon so regulated as to be a pleasant and agreeable place of resort to ladies and gentlemen.

FROM advices received from the Canoa it seems that two men, one being a brother of Santiago Via, for some time one of our county boarders, stole two horses at Tubutama in Sonora, and when near Canoa en route for Tucson were overtaken by the owners of the stock, the horses retaken and the thieves shot. The two men in passing Sopori ranch with their stock, on their return to Sonora, reported that they had killed the two thieves and stated where the bodies could be found. We believe the bodies have been buried.

WE received information too late for last week's issue, that a young man by the name of J. G. Skirlock usually known as Dock Skirlock, a little previous to the 11th instant stole three horses, two saddles and a gun from parties living in New Mexico, and made his way to Arizona.
He is described as being about 22 years of age, between five feet eight or ten inches high, light hair, light complexion, front teeth out, writes a very good hand, quick spoken, and usually makes a good impression on first acquaintance.

A. G. BUTTNER, special deputy United States marshal, came in yesterday from Apache Pass with two prisoners arrested for selling liquors to Indians. Their examination will take place before Judge Dunne at 10 o'clock to-day.

It is all together too much trouble to
